Ever Extra Launches New SaaS Online Employee Incentive Program

New York, N.Y. - Ever Extra has announced the launch of its software-as-a-service website available at everextra.com.

New York, N.Y. - Jacquelyn Haley, president of Ever Extra (www.everextra.com), a new online incentive program has announced the launch of its software-as-a-service website available at everextra.com. The new site focuses on employee incentive management, but also includes tools for employee recognition, employee engagement surveys, a virtual suggestion box, as well as countless other features and tools.

The website offers two methods for creating an account, free for up to 5 employees, or a Pro account that is free for 30 days.

QUOTES:

"For the first time an employee incentive program is accessible to any business large or small. Our combination of low cost and ease of use gives every company the opportunity to reduce employee turnover, increase productivity, and engage their employees," said Haley. "Keeping your employees challenged and engaged is a big problem in the corporate world. Even the best employees fall into a rut after a few years of service. Ever Extra is the all-in-one solution to that problem."
